What is AMICO?
• independent, not-for-profit, consortium of institutions with collections of art
• Mission: enable educational access to museum multimedia documentation

Building multimedia resources ...
• requires new methods and strategies
• raises social, economic, legal and technological challenges
• integrates people, institutions and systems

AMICO’s Challenges
• Technology
  - How do we digitize, and provide access to it?
• Use
  - Who wants it and why?
• Economics
  - How do pay for it and sustain it?
• Content
  - What to distribute?
• Documentation
  - How to describe it?
• Intellectual Property
  - What rights do we have and can we offer?
• Why should we collaborate at all?

Creating and Delivering the AMICO Library

AMICO Members
• established Consortium (1997)
• govern programs
• work on committees
• pay dues (equal to subscription costs)
• contribute to the Library annually
• use the Library
• see participation as part of their educational mission
AMICO

- assists members' participation
- develops specifications, best practices
- manages agreements
- compiles Library
  - validates structure and links
  - enhances indexing and authority control
- transfers Library to distributors
- facilitates collaboration and communication

AMICO Works

Works in the AMICO Library are documented by a catalog record, and image and an image metadata record. Other multimedia may also be included.

AMICO Distributors

- offer AMICO Library to users
- develop applications
- integrate AMICO Library with other content
- provide user support
- State-wide Consortia - OhioLINK
- AMICO Web Thumbnail Catalog
- Research Libraries Group (RLG)
- provide access and tools for distinct communities
